

With a neutral palette and plenty of cupboards, this kitchen makes the most of every inch. See p8

Almost invisible

With practically everything concealed behind doors, this look is particularly useful in an open-plan living area. Choose materials and colours that blend together for a seamless effect and include a decorative contrast, such as showstopping lighting

1

2

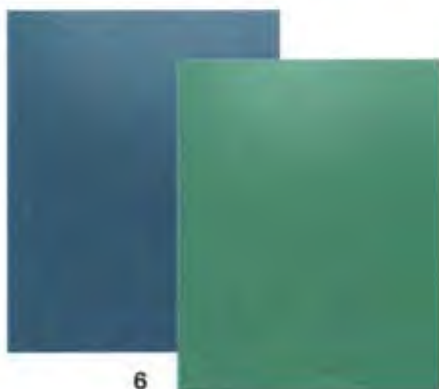

3

4

5

6

1 Livyn Light Grey Travertine LVT flooring, £31.99, Quick-Step 2 Brushed Architect kettle, £79.95, Dualit 3 Dip-glazed ceramic bowl, £14, Dunelm 4 Varilight two-way stainless-steel-effect dimmer switch, £12, B&Q 5 Else bar stool, £99, Danetti 6 Impact Glass splashback (60cm x 75cm) in 12 colours, including China Blue and Jungle, from £132, House of British Ceramic Tile

FADE TO GREY

This kitchen by Designspace London makes the most of every inch thanks to a neutral colour palette and plenty of cupboards. The Modulnova Fly cabinets have a satin lacquered Conchiglia finish topped with stone Pietra del Cardosa worksurfaces. With high-spec Gaggenau appliances and a bespoke extractor, prices start at £25,000.